seniors 87

From our first steps into Sharon High to our graduation day, we, the class of '87 have collected memories that will last in our minds forever.

That first year, who would have believed that this freshman class would four years later be seniors?

seniors 87

We finally made it here. Now we get to experience what we heard so much about in junior high school and elementary school. So many questions to be answered . . . Where's the pool? What's a pink slip? Is it D day? Do I need to carry all my books? How many days 'til summer?

ISLAND

We answered all our questions soon enough and quickly assumed a leadership position in the school with the election of our class officers. Our enthusiasm at the pep rally showed the school we would be a competitive force at the homecoming game and halloween assembly. Our first spirit week increased our class pride while our selling of suncatchers brought an increase to the treasury.

seniors 87

Our Freshman year was finally over but graduation day still loomed far off in the horizon. We no longer had a principal, but one would never have known. We launched a magazine drive and purchased our class rings. Our dream to be on the road was finally realized after we spent endless afternoons in Driver's Ed classes. Another dream came true at the year's finale, a semi-formal dance held at Sapphire Manor. With our Sophomore year a great success, we looked forward to becoming Juniors.

seniors 87

No longer starry-eyed underclassmen, we now faced the reality of PSAT's and filling in thousands of little ovals. Junior year finally made us wonder at THE FUTURE. Colleges — majors — careers — guidance class sure gave us plenty to dream of!

seniors '87

Sharon High kept us down-to-earth though, and in between boxes of M & M's and glances at our new principal Dr. Culley, we excitedly awaited the Junior Prom, hoping that no other girl would be wearing the same dress and agreeing with SADD that we all wanted to "arrive alive." Life saving with our classmate Annie became the only crash course we wanted, except, of course, the long-awaited approach to senior year.

We finally made it! With Marsengold, the candystore and the eyeopener all in tow we were more than ready to finish our years at Sharon High with class, and once again with a new principal, but old friend Doc. Blanchon. Surviving the last of our SAT's and Achievements, we recovered to a case of senioritis. "TOO early? . . . No, never!" Watch out world, here we come!

seniors 87

As we leave Sharon High, we let the doors close softly behind us. A wistful desire for security makes us want to leave them open a little, but the wishful yearning for new experiences leads us to other doors. We walk step by step, confidently but a little scared. Sharon High has taught us not to be afraid to open new doors. Now we're ready to reach for the stars!

appreciation

We would like to offer our appreciation to the many teachers at Sharon High who have helped us during the past four years. It is because of the time, effort and care that they've given us, that we will be able to continue to learn and grow as we pursue our goals.

dedication

On behalf of the class of 1987, we would like to dedicate this book to our new principal, but old friend, John S. "Doc" Blanchon.

Both as a vice-principal, and principal Doc has gone beyond the responsibilities of his job to reach out to us his students. It is with respect and pride that we honor our principal, to thank him for his dedication to the students of Sharon High School.

the prom

The theme of "Tender Love" echoed through Lantanas as the juniors danced the night away. J.D.'s Express provided great music, great fun, and great memories. Queen Michelle Connors, and King Jeff Goldman, presided over a Prom court that included Georgette Hunter, Laura Orkin, Michelle Chorney, and Susan Cummings.

senior class day

Everyone seemed to find their way to Horseneck Beach in time for a day of great partying under a warm June sun. But the memories we took away with us were even warmer and will last longer. ONE GREAT DAY!!!

In his last season as coach, Mr. Plouffe saw the team take the Hockomock Championship with a 16-0 record. The team advanced to the semi-finals of the south section of the Mass. Team Tournament. The team was led in its victorious efforts by senior Glynn Llyod and freshman David Katz playing first and second singles.

The girls team tied for the Hockomack League title for the first time in many years. Outstanding contributions were made by seniors Debbie Bickoff, Corri Shanbar, Sarah Delagi and Anne Kerzner. Returning this year will be Michelle Schlessinger, Melynne Kessel and Hillary Weingast, who will be the key to the teams success.

softball

It was a building year for the softball team with a number of new players. Major contributions were made to the teams successful outings by Jenny Mackay, Kris Mobilia and Pam Moore. Next year looks to be awesome.

baseball

The 1987 Sharon High baseball team should be greatly improved after a disappointing 1986 season. With a strong pitching staff and an outstanding group of senior players including Bruce Magit, Adam Daner, Lance Becker and Marc Clayman and a very good JV crew the 1987 Eagles should be flying high.

For the first time in 21 years, the Boys Varsity Soccer team, under coach Alan Howie, qualified for the state tournament. Led by co-captains Rob Kadish and Lance Becker, the team had an impressive 9-5-3 record. The high scorer for the team was senior and centerforward Chris Rogers, and included seniors Jeff Bickoff, Michael Gordon, and Aviv Ben-Meir. As the season drew to a close, the team became united and ready to meet all challengers next year.

cross country

While the Cross Country team could not quite match their 1986 season there were excellent performances by Michelle Connors, Jay O'Grady and Peter Butanowicz. Next year should be a strong and winning one!!

field hockey

This season everyone on the team made a great effort and really pulled the team together. A debt of thanks to tri-captains Dannielle Mann, Susan Cummings, and Andrea Greenidge for their leadership. With strong contributions by seniors Brenda Barnhart, Ilse Martin, Beth Rochefort, and Sandy Shapiro, this year was a very competitive season.

football

The 1986 football team had one of their most successful seasons in Hockomock League play. The teams final record of 8 wins and 2 losses was acheived through the efforts of a fine nucleus of seniors and a blend of underclassmen.

The outstanding passing of Dan Quirk, and pass-catching of Jon Bauman, the line play of Adam Daner and defense of Steve Fontes led the team to its fine season and the recognition of their contribution led to their being chosen as Hockomock League All-Stars.

halloween dress up day

October 31, 1986 found Sharon High with witches, ghosts, clowns, television personalities and various inanimate objects as school spirit took a turn towards the Halloween season. The annual assembly gave the seniors a chance to show off their bizarrely attired class, and the whole school got caught in the spooky spirit throughout the day. Even some of the teachers dressed up completing the wild and wacky scene.

homecoming 86

A bitterly cold November day could not lessen the excitement at the 1986 Homecoming Game. Along with the routines by the cheerleaders, pom-pom girls, and majorettes, the halftime show featured the annual float parade and the naming of the senior Homecoming Queen, Michelle Connors. Her court consisted of Yvette McMullen, Michelle Chorney, Lisa Snow, Alisa Kablotsky, Carolyn Elkind, Susan Cummings, and their escorts. To make the day complete, the Sharon Eagles handily defeated the Hornets of Mansfield; 27-13

thanksgiving pep rally

As the Sharon Eagles prepared for the Thanksgiving game, the school showed their support in the form of the annual Pep Rally. Bedecked in maroon and gold, students cheered as the football team was introduced and the cheerleaders, pom-pom squad and majorettes performed their routines. The Hockomock Shuffle gave everyone a laugh, and surely helped the football team realize how appreciative and proud the school is of their winning record, and their most successful season in years.

On December 12 and 13, 1986, after months of hard work, the Sharon High Drama Club presented their most successful production to date, Lady Windermere's Fan, by Oscar Wilde. Drama Club Advisor, Mr. Carlyle Newton, directed this highly stylized comedy of manners, which entertained both night's audiences and generated the most publicity (not to mention money) the Drama Club has received.

The show starred Kate Donovan, with extraordinary performances by seniors Daniel Katz, Danny Waltuck, Jeff Rowse, Jeremy Blumenthal, Julie Kopp, Lauren Keefe, Melissa Fleishman and Shirah Zidel, and the Production Staff was supervised by Producer Jeremy Blumenthal, Construction Chief Adam Soloman and Sophomore Stage Manager Debbie Rogers.

Congratulations to the Drama Club of their success, and "break a leg" in all future performances!
